NOTICE.
Business letters and communications for this paper should be addressed to THE CAUCASIAN, Raleigh, N. C. This is necessary to receive prompt attention. Do not address any letters to me except they be of a personal and private nature.

ATTENTION!
Subscribers in the city failing to get their CAUCASIAN will please send to the office their names, their street and their number, in order that we may be able to locate the fault upon he carrier upon whom it should fall.

THE DAILY CAUCASIAN WILL SUSPEND.

The first issue of THE DAILY CAUCASIAN appeared January 6th, just prior to the assembling of the legislature. That issue contained the following announcement:

"We start THE DAILY CAUCASIAN at this time, to report the proceedings of the legislature to our people, and to defend ourselves against the misrepresentations which our enemies are sure to attempt to spread broadcast to the danger and damage of the reform movement in North Carolina. As yet, the stockholders have not determined as to whether or not the paper shall be continued as a daily beyond the present session of the legislature. It is hoped and believed that our people will so rally to the support of the paper as to enable it to continue its much needed work of educating the public conscience along the lines of necessary reform. But if it shall be so that our expectations and wishes in this regard are disappointed, we can confidently assure all the people that THE DAILY CAUCASIAN will be in the fight in 1896."

The chief purpose for which the Daily issue of the paper was begun is now accomplished. It has reported the proceedings of the legislature, tried to be honest and fair. If there has ever been a misrepresentation of anything or anybody, it has been purely accidental. Some criticisms have been offered and some positions have been taken which apparently did not please some who might, for political reasons only, have been regarded as its friends. But the positions assumed and the criticisms offered have been honest; and if they were afterwards discovered to be erroneous, in admitting error.

There has been no disappointment in the hope and belief that our people would rally to the support of the Daily. A wide conference, by correspondence and otherwise, has been had as to the advisability of continuing the publication of THE DAILY CAUCASIAN. This conference was with the three thousand subscribers that went on the books within three weeks after the Daily issue was begun, and also with other friends all over the State; and there are at hand sufficient pledges for subscriptions and stock to justify a continuance of the Daily publication. But with these pledges there is a strongly expressed judgment that an absolute necessity for its continuance does not exist just now, but will exist in the future. Acting on that judgment, the directors of THE CAUCASIAN Publishing Company have decided that the Daily issue shall be suspended with the ending of the session of the legislature. The Daily issue of Thursday morning, March 14, will therefore be the last one for the present. It will be resumed at the proper time. It may not be amiss to say that the Daily issue ceases with money in its treasury, and with paid up stock subscriptions practically unimpaired. Proper disposition will be made of the funds which have been paid for subscriptions for a longer time than the Daily has been published.

THE WEEKLY CAUCASIAN will be continued and published in the city of Raleigh, and will be under the immediate management of Mr. Hal. W. Ayer.

FOR UNITED ACTION.
From the CAUCASIAN's point of view, nothing can be said against the movement recently begun for the purpose of uniting into one organization, regardless of avowed political faith, all the people of the country who honestly desire a settlement of the financial question by the adoption of free coinage of silver at the rate of 16 to 1.

The movement here referred to is "sop" thrown out to the people, and signed by a few National capital; certain that securing free silver coinage through the National Democratic party. The promulgators of the Democratic manifesto set forth, with much gusto, the fact that a majority of the Democratic party ought to control its policy. Well, perhaps that is true; but the living fact is that the majority of that party does not control its policy, and if it did, such control would not result in a solution of the financial question by free coinage, because the entire Democratic party does not include a majority of the people.

The movement which the CAUCASIAN would be slow to criticize is the one which has recently resulted from the honest and persistent work of the American Bi-Metallic League, and which has to a very considerable extent already united a large number of prominent people of previously existing different political faiths, who have formally declared their intention of putting the financial issue ahead of everything else and forcing it to a conclusion.

The basis of this movement is expressed as follows:
The money question is now indisputably the dominant issue in the United States, and will remain so until settled and settled rightly. Other questions, however important, must wait for this, which to a great or less extent, involves all others. The issue is between the gold standard, gold bonds, and bank currency on the one side, and the bimetallic standard, no bonds, and government currency on the other.

First. On this issue we declare ourselves to be unalterably opposed to the single gold standard, and demand the immediate return to the constitutional standard of gold and silver by the restoration by this Government, independently of any foreign power, of the unrestricted coinage of both silver and gold into standard money at a ratio of 16 to 1, and upon terms of exact equality, the silver coin to be a full legal tender, equally with gold, for all debts and dues, public and private.

Second. We hold that the power to control and regulate a paper currency is inseparable from the power to coin money, and hence that all currency intended to circulate as money should be issued and its volume controlled by the general government only, and should be legal tender.

Third. We are unalterably opposed to the issue by the United States of interest-bearing bonds in time of peace, and demand the payment of all coin obligations of the United States, as provided by existing laws, in either gold or silver coin, at the option of the Government, and not at the option of the creditor.

In this issue we appeal from the intelligence and patriotism of the American people.
We would like to ask what the News & Observer meant by saying that "the sixty day limit for the legislature has expired, and yet the tax payers are still burdened to give the Reformers more time to caucus." Honest now, what did you mean? Every sensible man knows what impression you attempt to create; but you tell, square out, what you tried to insinuate? Was it a few cents' pay, or did you want to deceive some of the remainder of your poor, blind, prejudiced and discredited old Democratic party into believing that the legislature was taking the State's money for overtime. You ought to have been on guard like this when the people were burdened to pay you some thousands annually for nothing.

THE CAUCASIAN is a believer in material advancement and encouragement. It had hoped that the present legislature would show a strong tendency in that direction. That body, however, the dead why try to infuse life into the living by encouraging industry by aiding industrial organizations, such as the Dairyman's association, Agricultural society &c. Evidently the "Farmers' lobby" which is the entire legislature, does not lobby for the farmer. First thing somebody knows the farmer will begin to "lobby" for himself. He has already begun voting for himself.

The News and Observer has kicked at everything done by the present legislature and everything it has not done. It kicked against the nice little speech made by Lt. Gov. Doughton when the Senate presented him with a "token of esteem." It would not print all of the speech. That paper will next kick itself.

SENATOR GEORGE WANTS REST
And Will Retire From the Senate After a Service of Eighteen Years.

GREENVILLE, Miss., March 11.—It is announced here on reliable authority that U. S. Senator J. Z. George will not be a candidate for re-election at the expiration of his present term. Under Mississippi's new constitution, legislators are elected only every four years, and the only regular session of the legislature to convene before the expiration of Senator George's term in 1899 will be the body composed of members elected in November next. The public announcement of the determination of Senator George to retire will prove a political sensation in Mississippi and several prominent men will at an early date enter the contest for his seat. It is already understood that Congressman H. D. Money, John M. Allen and ex-Governor Robert Lowry have their eyes on the place. There is no person so far given for the determination of Senator George to retire from Congress at the close of his present term except that among nearly thirty successive years in public life, 15 of which have been served in the Senate, he desires a rest from such exacting duties.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Among the passengers who arrived on the Cunard steamer Umbria this morning, was Gen. M. Barrios, the Spanish Envoy, sent to Great Britain from Nicaragua to adjust the differences between the two countries.

All communications for the CAUCASIAN, Raleigh, N. C., should be addressed to the office.

COULD CALL A REVOLUTION.

But Will let Congress Investigate—And Take Conservative Action.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 11.—A special to the Banner from Montgomery, Ala., says: Captain Kolb, who claims to be Alabama's rightful governor, left Montgomery today for Birmingham to be present at the meeting of the State executive committee tomorrow called for the purpose of determining whether the party shall adopt revolutionary methods to seize Kolb. Capt. Kolb declined to talk, saying: "I have written a strong communication to the committee which will be given to the press."

It is understood here that Kolb favors revolutionary methods. It is said the committee will be about evenly divided on Kolb's proposition. Hon. J. C. Manning, president of the Southern Ballot Rights League and Populist leader of Alabama, passed through Nashville yesterday en route east. Referring to the Populist State committee meeting to assemble in Birmingham, he was led to say that nothing in that line would be done. He said: "Kolb has been twice Governor, but although the Alabama legislature refused to allow him a contest in law and has deprived him of his seat, he is greater than governor, in the knowledge that he has led a movement in Alabama which is slowly, steadily and surely destroying a corrupt government. He could cause a revolution now and get followers to march on the capitol, but we will let Congress march on Oates and his ballot box stuffers, and we want public sentiment against Oates to rise and bury him and his cohorts. The opposition to us are the Anarchists. We are the conservators of peace and the party attempting to uphold justice. The executive committee will do nothing radical or revolutionary."

The money question is now indisputably the dominant issue in the United States, and will remain so until settled and settled rightly. Other questions, however important, must wait for this, which to a great or less extent, involves all others. The issue is between the gold standard, gold bonds, and bank currency on the one side, and the bimetallic standard, no bonds, and government currency on the other.

First. On this issue we declare ourselves to be unalterably opposed to the single gold standard, and demand the immediate return to the constitutional standard of gold and silver by the restoration by this Government, independently of any foreign power, of the unrestricted coinage of both silver and gold into standard money at a ratio of 16 to 1, and upon terms of exact equality, the silver coin to be a full legal tender, equally with gold, for all debts and dues, public and private.

Nerves Unstrung
Weak, No Appetite—Hood's Sarsaparilla Restored Health.
"Three years ago I had the grip, which settled in my head. It continued to grow worse and there was no rest for me. My limbs felt numb, my nerves seemed to be unstrung and I had no appetite. Doctors' treatment and other remedies failed to avail me relief. I obtained two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which restored me to myself. Last July I began to have bad symptoms, and I at once resorted to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I continued until I had taken three bottles, which not only restored my health but also cured my belly of a hunch and did him a great deal of good." Mark B. BARNETT, North Carolina, Va.
